Dear General Bradley:

I wish to express my heartiest congratulations to you for your fine SATURDAY EVENING POST article. I feel it is a most helpful and timely exposition on one of the vital problems in the Free World.

Incidentally, I have seen your letter of 12 April to Pearre Cabell and am particularly delighted with your comments on [Redacted] has reported to me his great pleasure in working with Colonel Clifton.

When you are next in Washington I should sincerely appreciate an opportunity to have a talk with you.

Faithfully,
